Dear Stockdale & Leggo Epping,

The personal attention and professionalism provided by Mike Assad is second to none. After a hellish 12 months of trying to sell a property, and being told by other agents that it was impossible to sell at our asking price, Mike was able to secure a buyer and made sure that we got the best offer possible . Since then, Mike has helped us sell another property and buy something else that is more suited to our needs. His honesty, integrity and upfront demeanour set us at ease while going through the financial stresses that caused the need to sell these properties. I have no hesitation in recommending Mike for your realestate needs.

Regards,
Mary, Norm and Peter Fattouche'
